

Identity and Marginality Among New Australians: Religion and Ethnicity in Victorias Slavic Baptist Community (Religion and Society (de Gruyter))

This work deals with the identification and integration process of immigrants in Australia and the role that religion plays in this process. Viktor Zander investigates the immigrant community of Slavic Baptists in Victoria and analyzes the relationship between ethnic and religious identities as well as their social dynamics. Identity and marginality are addressed as crucial issues for Slavic immigrants and their Australian-born children. The work is based on the authors field-research in the Slavic Baptist community in Victoria. Key Features Second volume in relaunch of the series Religion and Society (RS)
